

Prayers of the People this morning is Form II on page 385 of the Book of Common Prayer.

Prayers of the People

BCP 385

All remain standing.

I ask your prayers for God's people throughout the world; for Michael, our Presiding Bishop, for Kirk, our own Bishop, for Timothy, Geoff, Janet, and Meg, our clergy, for Sharon and Karin, our Licensed Lay Pastoral Care Ministers, for this gathering; and for all ministers and people.

Pray for the Church

Silence

I ask your prayers for peace; for goodwill among nations; and for the well-being of all people.

Pray for justice and peace.

Silence

I ask for your prayers for those affected by natural disasters and civil unrest.

Silence

I ask your prayers for the poor, the sick, the hungry, the oppressed, and those in prison.

Pray for those in any need or trouble.

Silence

I ask your prayers for all who seek God, or a deeper knowledge of him.

Pray that they may find and be found by him.

Silence

I ask you prayers for all the visitors and guests whom the Lord will send us. Pray that they may find a home with us.

Silence

I ask your prayers for the departed.
Pray for those who have died.

Silence

I ask your prayers for the men and women of our armed forces, especially those who are deployed in war zones, and their families, and for all troops and civilians in harm's way in regions of conflict around the world.

Silence

I ask your prayers for our companion Diocese, the Episcopal Church in Navajoland:
Bishop David E. Bailey.

Silence

Praise God for those in every generation in whom Christ has been honored.
Pray that we may have grace to glorify Christ in our own day.
